

Major Show Calf Scrambles

Calf scrambles are a great way to get started in the livestock projects and earn valuable college scholarships. Information for calf scrambles at Fort Worth, San Antonio, and Houston is outlined below. If interested, contact Mike at the Extension office to discuss this program.

Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo - January 16-February 7, 2015

- * Purchase certificate value of $500
- * Certificates used to purchase a breeding beef or dairy heifer
- * Must be 14, 15, 16, or 17 on Jan.1, 2015 and not beyond junior year of high school
- * Entries accepted on a first-come, first served basis beginning October 1
- * Heifer must be shown at the Fort Worth Livestock Show the following year

San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo - February 12-March 1, 2015

- * Purchase certificate value of $800
- * Certificates used to purchase a breeding beef, dairy, swine, sheep, or goat project
- * Must have reached 12th but not 18th birthday on Jan. 1, 2015 and not beyond junior year of high school
- * Entries due to the county Extension office by October 28
- * Animal must be shown at the San Antonio Livestock Show the following year

Houston Livestock Show & Rodeo - March 3-22, 2015

- * Purchase certificate value of $1,750
- * Certificates used to purchase a breeding beef or market steer
- * Must have reached 14th but not 18th birthday on Jan.1, 2015 and not beyond junior year of high school
- * Entries accepted on a first-come, first served basis beginning October 15
- * Animal must be shown at the Houston Livestock Show the following year